Chip Stock Makes Supply Chain Connect's List of Top 50 Electronics Distributors

CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA – May 26, 2023 – Chip Stock, a factory direct electronic component distributor and supply chain solution service, today announced it was included on the Supply Chain Connect List of Top 50 Electronics Distributors for 2023.

“It is an honor to be named as one of the Top 50 Electronics Distributors by Supply Chain Connect,” said Dustin Osborne, President of Chip Stock. “Our mission is to provide quality components in an efficient and cost-effective manner, while helping our clients fulfill their electronic component needs. Being recognized for fulfilling that mission is a worthwhile achievement for Chip Stock.”

For more than 10 years, Supply Chain Connect has conducted the Top 50 Electronics Distributor survey. Every year, the company ranks each distributor according to its total global sales volume in U.S. dollars.

“Our utmost priority is the complete satisfaction of our clients and delivering factory-direct quality parts,” Osborne continued. “Chip Stock is small in terms of number of employees, but we can clearly compete with many of the larger distributors on a global level.”
